On the above date Officer Vaillancourt and Sergeant Rocheville were conducting a directed patrol along the railroad tracks to the rear of the old Salem Oil and Grease. When we got to the railroad bridge we discovered a male subject floating in the North River wearing just shorts. We attempted to engage him in conversation, but he appeared to be under the influence of narcotics. When he responded to verbal stimuli he would make a moaning sound. After several minutes we were able to convince him to exit the water. Due to his level of intoxication he had a difficult time exiting the water. Officer Vaillancourt located clothing, a cell phone and sneakers on the opposite side of the river. He located a Massachusetts Drivers License in the name of [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] Street, Peabody. Officer Vaillancourt contacted Peabody P.D. who reported that [REDACTED] uses the illegal substance, "Bath Salts" and is extremely combative with law enforcement officers. [REDACTED] was transported to the NSMC via A/A without incident.
